

M.G. ALEXANDER AWARD IN TROPICAL INFECTIONS

A NATIONAL RECOGNITION OF EXCELLENCE

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

The Clinical Infectious Diseases Society (CIDS) proudly invites nominations for the distinguished M.G. Alexander Award, instituted to honour exemplary leadership and transformative contributions in the field of Tropical Infections.

This award celebrates individuals whose work has shaped clinical practice, strengthened research, advanced teaching, and significantly influenced public health in India. The Award Includes

1. Formal Citation of Excellence
2. Invited Oration at the CIDS Annual Conference

Nomination Dossier Must Include

1. Two Letters of Nomination

Including one formal recommendation from the Head of the Institution, affirming the nominee's distinction and national impact.

2. Detailed Curriculum Vitae

With complete bibliography and academic achievements.

3. One-Page Statement of Impact

Summarizing seminal contributions and their influence on clinical practice, research, and policy.

Deadline: 15th May 2026

Selection Process

An Award Committee constituted by the President of CIDS will conduct a rigorous evaluation based on:

1. Sustained Excellence in Research & Teaching
2. Scholarly Impact and Scientific Contribution
3. Clinical Leadership and National Influence
4. Service to the Discipline and to CIDS

Submission Email: secretary@cidsindia.org

Details about previous awardees are available on

<https://www.cidsindia.org/m-g-alexander-award-in-tropical-infections>